ALWAYS FOR LIBERTY AND THE PUBLICK GOOD.

High HEAVEN to GRACIOUS ENDS directs the STORM!

The HEADS: Or, The Year 1776. [From the Publick Ledger.]

YE wrong heads, and ſtrong heads, attend to my ſtrain;
Ye clear heads, and queer heads, and heads without brains,
Ye thick ſculls, and quick ſculls, and heads great and ſmall,
And ye heads that aſpire to be heads overall.
Ye ladies (I would not offend for the world!)
Whoſe bright heads, and light heads, are feather'd and curl'd,
The mighty dimenſions dame Nature ſurpriſe,
To find ſhe'd ſo groſly miſtaken the ſize.
And ye petits maitres your heads I might ſpare,
Encumber'd with nothing but powder and hair,
Who vainly diſgrace the true monkey race,
By tranſplanting the tail from its own native place.
Enough might be ſaid durſt I venture my rhymes
On crown'd heads, and round heads, of theſe modern times;
This ſlippery path let me cautiouſly tread,
The neck elſe will anſwer perhaps for the head.
The heads of the church, and the heads of the ſtate,
Have taught much, and wrote much, too much to repeat;
On the neck of corruption uplifted, 'tis ſaid,
Some rulers, alas! are too high by the head.
Ye ſchemers and dreamers of politick things,
Projecting the downfal of kingdoms and kings,
Can your wiſdom declare how this body is fed,
When the members rebel and wage war with the head?
Expounders, confounders, and heads of the law,
I bring caſe in point, don't point out a flaw;
If reaſon be treaſon, what plea ſhall I plead?
To your chief I appeal, for your chief has a head.
On Britannia's boſom ſweet Liberty ſmil'd,
The PARENT grew ſtrong whilſt ſhe foſter'd the CHILD;
Ill treating her offspring, a fever ſhe bred,
Which contracted her limbs, and diſtracted her head.
Ye learned ſtate doctors, your labours are vain,
Proceeding by bleeding to ſettle her brain;
Much leſs can your art the loſt members reſtore,
Amputation muſt follow, perhaps ſomething more.
Pale goddeſs of whim! when with cheeks lean or full
Thy influence ſeizes an Engliſhman's ſcull,
He blunders, yet wonders his ſchemes ever fail,
Though often miſtaking the head for the tail.

MANCHESTER, May 10, 1777.

AS mr. Charles Irving of Albemarle, and mr. Robert Murray of Cumberland county, have given up the charge of the buſineſs they were lately employed in for meſſ Henderſon M'Caul & co of Glaſgow, I ſhould be glad if thoſe to whom the company is indebted would apply to me and receive payment.

(2) JAMES LYLE.

For SALE,

A VALUABLE plantation on Nottoway river, in Suſſex county, adjoining the High Hills, containing about 850 acres, which is an excellent range for ſtock, well timbered, and has ground cleared ſufficient to work 7 or 8 hands to great advantage. There is a good dwelling-houſe, and all other neceſſary buildings for a family.

2| NATHANIEL. DUNN.

To be SOLD for ready money, on Thurſday the 5th of June, at the plantation where Suſannah Chriſtian, deceaſed, lately lived,

2| HENRY VAUGHAN, ex'r.

FAUQUIER, April 30, 1777.

WHEREAS my ſon William Walker has eloped from me ever ſince the 14th of December laſt, I hereby offer a reward of 20s. to any perſon who will inform me where he is to be found. He is but ill grown, has light col'ured hair, and is marked on the end of the chin with a black huckleberry; he was dreſſed in country cloth, and had on an old leather apron. He has no education, but is an artful boy.

1| JOHN WALKER.

STRAYED or STOLEN from the academy in Prince Edward county, on the 23d of laſt March, two bright bay horſes, one of them about 10 years old, the other older. The old horſe has a drooping rump, his ſides rubbed with drawing, and branded on one of his buttocks with a large T. The other horſe has a ſtar in his forehead (if any brand, forgot) and has a ſcrape down his face, which I ſuppoſe is ſtill to be ſeen. There were horſes ſeen not far from mr. Pauling Anderſon's in Amelia, which I ſuppoſe to have been theſe. Perhaps they may go through Cumberland, on their way home, or endeavour to croſs over at Rocky Ridge. I will give 5 DOLLARS to be informed of them ſo that I may get them again, and 10 DOLLARS if brought home to me in King William, near Aylett's warehouſe, or one half for either horſe.

4| WILLIAM ROBERTSON.

LOST laſt Caroline court, a POCKET BOOK, red and white worſted needle work in which was a bond from mr. William Tylar of ſaid county to Martin Hewlett, for 23l 4s. given in November laſt, and payable on demand, with ſundry other papers of no uſe to any one but the owner, alſo 11l. 3s. 9d current money. I hereby forewarn all perſons from taking an aſſignment of the bond; and whoever delivers the ſaid book and papers ſhall have the money it contained, without being aſked any queſtions.

1| WILLIAM HEWLETT, ſen.

MAY 1, 1777.

WENT away from the ſubſcriber, about eight days ago, a likely negro boy named GEORGE, of a dark yellow complexion, has good features, is very ſmart in converſation, and an inſinuating raſcal, as would appear from his cozening the rider out of his mare about 15 miles above this place, with which he went off; he is about 15 or 16 years of age, and took with him a likely forrel mare 14 hands and a half high, with a blaze face, branded on the near buttock RB. hanging mane and ſhort ſwitch tail. He was born upon the Eaſtern Shore, in Maryland, oppoſite to Annapolis, whither I have great reaſon to believe he is gone, and that he will be for forcing a paſſage over Potowmack either at Hooe's ferry or Alexandria. I will give TEN DOLLARS reward to any perſon who will deliver the boy and mare to mr. George Muir at Frederickſburg, or to me at Urbanna.

1| BENNETT BROWNE.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber in Charlotte, the 17th of April laſt, a negro man named NED, who is a well ſet fellow, about 29 years old, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, has remarkable ſmall legs for his ſize, walks with his toes much turned out, plays on the violin, pretends ſometimes to make fiddles, and is very forward in ſpeaking. He carried with him a homeſpun white yarn jacket and blue and white yarn breeches, much worn; but I ſuppoſe he has got other clothes, as he is a very great villain. About four years ago he ran away and got into Fincaſtle county, on the waters of New river, where he hired himſelf as a freeman, by the name of John Redcroſs. Whoever apprehends the ſaid runaway and conveys him to me, or ſecures him in any jail ſo that I get him again, ſhall have 20 DOLLARS reward, and be allowed all reaſonable charges.

4| RICHARD GAINES, ſen.

STRAYED or STOLEN from capt. William Clarke's, near Hanover town, laſt Friday night, a black mare 4 feet 7 or 8 inches high, 7 or 8 years old, with hanging mane and ſwitch tail, low in fleſh, has a ſore back with a plaiſter on it, paces naturally, and branded on the near ſhoulder IY. Whoever delivers the ſaid mare to me, or gives ſuch intelligence as ſhe may be got again, ſhall have 30s. reward.

DAVID CLARKE.

LONDON, February 17.

EVERY preparation is making on the ſide of government in order to render the enſuing campaign in America deciſive, as the land forces are to be conſiderably augmented, and double the number of cruiſers will be employed, the more effectually to block up the ports of the colonies, and prevent their carrying on any trade at all.

General Burgoyne is expected to ſail in about ſix weeks for Canada, to which province he will be attended by ſeveral young noblemen and gentlemen as volunteers.

Feb. 20. Two regiments or battalions of foot are to go from England this ſpring, and the like number from Ireland.

The above troops, with the additional German auxiliaries, will make a reinforcement of 20,000 men to the army in America.

It is aſſerted that a meſſenger ſet out yeſterday for Peterſburg, with inſtructions for the Britiſh miniſter at that court to forward with all poſſible expedition the completion of the treaty by which the empreſs engages to furniſh Great Britain with a body of 20 000 men.

The bill to enable his majeſty to ſecure and detain perſons charged with high treaſon in America, or for piracy on the ſeas, was read a ſecond time; whereupon great debates enſued, which continued from 4 till a quarter before 9. when the houſe divided: For the bill 195, againſt it 39, majority 156. The gallery doors were locked the whole time of the debate. The principal ſpeakers for the bill were, lord North, lord George Germaine, and the attorney and ſolicitor generals. Againſt it, colonel Barre, C. Fox, and mr. Dunning.

Feb. 25. All the troops deſtined for America will be embarked before the 20th of March, in order to be early in the field.

Yeſterday admiral Shuldham, lately arrived from New York, was at court, and had a conference with the king, and kiſſed his majeſty's hand on being created an Iriſh peer.

Extract of a letter from Plymouth, Feb. 4.

"They talk of fitting up Storehouſe priſon (uſed as ſuch laſt war) for the Americans that may be taken and brought in here."

Yeſterday the bill for detention of perſons without bail or mainpriſe, who might be ſeized on ſuſpicion of treaſon committed in America, or of piracy on the high ſeas, was read a third time, and paſſed by the lords.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.

Extract of a letter from general Waſhington to Congreſs, dated May 5, 1777.

BY major Troop, one of general Gates's aids-de-camp, and who left Albany on Tueſday laſt, I am informed the accounts of general Carleton's approach towards Ticonderoga were premature. He ſays general Gates received a letter before he came away from brigadier general Wayne, of the 24th ult. in which he mentioned nothing of it. That 3000 troops had arrived there, all in high ſpirits and health, except nine, and that that poſt could never be carried without the loſs of much blood."

Publiſhed by order of Congreſs.

CHA. THOMSON, ſec'ry.

IN CONGRESS.

May 12, 1777.

RESOLVED, that the poſtmaſters, poſt riders, and perſons immediately concerned in conducting the buſineſs of the poſt office, ought to be exempted from all military duties, and that it be recommended to the legiſlatures of the different ſtates to exempt ſuch perſons accordingly.

Extract from the minutes.

WILLIAMSBURG, May 23.

Extract of a letter from Philadelphia, dated May 13, 1777.

CAPT. Weeks has taken a Lisbon packet mounting 16 carriage guns and 105 men, with three merchantmen under convoy, the whole very valuable, and carried them into Port L'Orient.---Our army at Ticonderoga, by laſt returns, was upwards of 3000 effective men, and 2000 more were on their march ---General Waſhington has at leaſt 8000 regulars; he has laid out his camp only four miles from Brunſwick, and was to take the field as this day. I have not a doubt but ſomething material will happen in 8 or 10 days. ---We are all in high ſpirits."

A bill was paſſed in the Britiſh Houſe of Commons the 17th of February laſt, wherein it is decreed, that all and every perſon or perſons who have been, or ſhall hereafter be, ſeized and taken in the act of high treaſon, committed in any of his majeſty's colonies or plantations in America, or on the high ſeas, or in the act of piracy, or who are or ſhall be charged with, or ſuſpected of, the crime of high treaſon, committed in any of the ſaid colonies, or on the high ſeas, or of piracy, or who have been or ſhall be committed, in any part of his majeſty's dominions, for ſuch crimes, or any of them, or for ſuſpicion of ſuch crimes, or either of them, by any magiſtrate having competent authority in that behalf, to the common jail, or other place of confinement, ſhall and may thereupon be ſecured and detained in ſafe cuſtody, without bail or mainpriſe, until the 1ſt day of January 1778; and that no judge or juſtice of peace ſhall bail or try any ſuch perſon or perſons without order from his majeſty's moſt honourable privy council, ſigned by ſix of the ſaid privy council, until the ſaid 1ſt day of January 1778 ---And, by the ſaid bill, the king is empowered to appoint one or more place or places of confinement within his realm, for the cuſtody of ſuch priſoners, beſides, or inſtead of, the common jails. ---A proviſo is alſo made, that no offences ſhall be conſtrued to be piracy, within the meaning of the act, except felonies committed on the ſhips and goods of his majeſty's ſubjects by perſons on the high ſeas ---And the act is to continue in force till the ſaid 1ſt of January 1778, and no longer. [Although this is a mere bugbear act, it ſerves to ſhow what we might expect from our enemies if they had us in their power; but, as matters now ſtand, they dare as well eat their nails as to ſhed one drop of American blood, becauſe they well know that it is in our power to retaliate upon them.]

By a gentleman from Dumfries, we have the following intelligence, which he received from mr. Richard Graham of that place, juſt arrived from Philadelphia, viz. That general Stephen had wrote to Congreſs, that he, with a detachment of continental troops, attacked, two miles from Brunſwick, on Monday the 12th inſtant, about 600 Highlanders, who retreated to a ſkirt of woods, upon which he purſued them; that they were ſhortly after ſupported with ſeven companies of light infantry, and about the ſame time he received a reinforcement ſufficient to make them run a ſecond time, when he purſued them a conſiderable diſtance; that our troops behaved with the greateſt intrepidity and bravery, upon which the general congratulates Congreſs; and that the Highlanders were almoſt cut off, though our loſs was very inconſiderable. ----Mr. Graham likewiſe informed, that Congreſs had publiſhed a reſolve, that all intereſt for money by them borrowed ſhall be annually diſcharged in ſilver or gold; that upon this being made publick, great ſums were daily bringing into the continental loan office; that bar ſilver roſe in a few days 15l. per tun, and many other commodities in proportion; and that Congreſs is enabled to do this by a loan from France.

Yeſterday GEORGE MASON, eſq; was elected a member of Congreſs in the room of col. Thomas Nelſon, who reſigned on account of his health; and the following gentlemen were elected by ballot of both Houſes of Aſſembly to repreſent this ſtate in General Congreſs for one year from the 11th of Auguſt next, viz. BENJAMIN HARRISON, eſq; Benjamin Harriſon, eſq; Berkeley, GEORGE MASON, eſq; JOSEPH JONES, eſq; FRANCIS LIGHTFOOT LEE, eſq; and JOHN HARVIE, eſq.

Death.] Mrs. DOROTHY ELIZABETH TAZEWELL, ſpouſe to Henry Tazewell, eſq; of Brunſwick county. She was a very amiable lady, and is deſervedly regretted by all who had the pleaſure of her acquaintance.

COLE DIGGES, eſq; one of the delegates for Warwick county, in this city.

Mr. WILLIAM FEARSON, of New Kent county, ſuddenly, at Tuckaho, in Goochland.

Mr. JOHN WATKINS, of Surry county, in the 45th year of his age; who was a kind neighbour, a good huſband, and an indulgent father. He bore a painful and lingering illneſs with the patience and reſignation of a Chriſtian, and left many ſurviving friends to lament the loſs of him.

Mr. PURDIE,

THE Britiſh parliament, to fill up the meaſure of their guilt and folly, have paſſed an act which, if carried into execution, muſt immediately put a ſtop to all exchange of priſoners, and may reduce us to the cruel neceſſity of giving no quarter, as we are to expect nothing more than a formal and deliberate murder after being forced 3000 miles from the place of action. But as we know the Britiſh king is now above all law, and has delegated a diſpenſing power to his vicegerent lord Howe, may it not be worth while for the Congreſs or general Waſhington to endeavour to put a ſtop to this miſchief, by remonſtrating to his lordſhip againſt ſuch an impolitick and inhuman meaſure, and by denouncing vengeance againſt, and an exact retaliation on, all priſoners which now are or hereafter may be in our power? I ſhall only remark, that this bloody act was paſſed upon receiving the accounts of their ſucceſs on Long Iſland and at New York, which may ſhow us what we are to expect if conquered, and ſhould refuſe us to uſe every effort to poſſeſs ourſelves of as many priſoners as poſſible, and to raiſe an army ſufficient immediately to crush theſe implacable and ſavage enemies; and let me add, that I truſt our Aſſembly will forthwith appoint a ſhort day on which, if our quota of troops ſhall not be complete, the deficiency of each county ſhall be made up by a fair draught of the militia. If this be not done, it muſt be forever abſolutely impoſſible to direct that any county or diſtrict ſhall furniſh a certain number of troops; and if it be adopted, we ſhall be certain of having our quota of men in the field, and thereby have a proſpect of finiſhing the war this campaign. I am your humble ſervant,

A VIRGINIAN.

WILLIAMSBURG, May 19, 1777.

MR. PURDIE,

FINDING myſelf advertiſed in your Gazette of the 21ſt of March as a deſerter from my country's ſervice, which of all other characters I at this time in particular moſt heartily deſpiſe, I therefore leave to relieve myſelf from the odium that would otherwiſe juſtly belong to me, and ſhall therefore trouble the publick, through your means, with the following narrative of facts. Some time about the 6th of Auguſt 1776 I enliſted as a private ſoldier in the continental ſervice under capt. Ballard, when I got a furlough for ten days, at the expiration thereof to meet at Hanover courthouſe in order to march to the Northward. I accordingly did ſo; but not being able to travel, I procured another furlough from mr. Clayton, lieutenant of the company which directed me to meet at Williamſburg. I repaired to that place on the 7th of December, when I was ordered by general Lewis to join the regiments then on their march to general Waſhington, which I immediately complied with, and marched within 49 miles of Philadelphia; but being there taken ſick, I hired John James in my room, who was well approved of by the commanding officer, and got my diſcharge on the 15th.

WHEREAS the TANYARD near this city, late the property of mr. William Pearſon, deceaſed, is now occupied by the ſubſcriber and company, they intend carrying on that buſineſs to the greateſt extent they poſſibly can, and will give ready money, and the higheſt price, for all hides and ſkins; and as an inducement to thoſe that have either to diſpoſe of, and ſhould want leather, they may depend on being firſt ſupplied with what they have occaſion for, as good, and on as reaſonable terms, as by any other perſon in this ſtate. And as this buſineſs, carried on here, may be of great ſervice to the neighbourhood, they hope to have the preference of all the hides and ſkins ſold near this city. They flatter themſelves they will be able to give general ſatisfaction, the ſubſcriber being well acquainted with the buſineſs, but particularly the currying part, which is ſo very neceſſary.

FRIDAY, May 23 1777. } SUPPLEMENT TO THE VIRGINIA GAZETTE. PRINTED BY ALEXANDER PURDIE. } No. 121

WHEREAS I ſold to a certain John Woolfinbargo a tract of land lying in Orange county, on Rappidan river, near the old courthouſe, for which I have his bond, and the ſaid John Woolfinbargo refuſing to diſcharge the bond agreeable to contract, this is to forewarn all perſons from purchaſing the ſaid land, as I will not give a deed for the ſame until the bond is diſcharged.

2 FRANCIS MOORE, jun.

WALES, April 29, 1777.

THE land mr James Gray purchaſed of me was, in conformity to a decree of Dinwiddie court, publickly advertiſed, and ſold to the higheſt bidder at Southampton courthouſe, in the neighbourhood of the ſaid Gray. Finding it inconvenient to attend myſelf, the ſale, at my requeſt, was conducted by a gentleman who practiſed in Southampton court as a lawyer, and in that capacity had obtained the above decree againſt me. He took mr. Gray's bond for 25l the conſideration money, and delivered it to me. True it is that I refuſed to execute a deed with general warranty for the ſaid land, not thinking myſelf obliged ſo to do from the tenour of the decree, the terms of my advertiſement, or the information my friend gave me reſpecting the actual ſale he made. I am always ready to arbitrate this matter, and wiſh to do it before mr. Gray leaves this ſtate, otherwiſe it muſt be poſtponed for litigation hereafter. Suffer me, however, to obſerve to him, that the land having been mortgaged to me by a third perſon, and ſaid as part of his eſtate, it cannot be optional, I think, in mr. Gray, or myſelf, to ſet aſide the ſale made as aforeſaid.

2 GRAY BRIGGS.
